

Zenna

After receiving training from The African Touch, Zenna was able to double her salary, teach her sister the skills of massage therapy, and lift their family from poverty.

African Touch Graduating Class

“To me it’s an absolute stunning shining truth that we can make a transformational difference in people’s lives through this basic education.” - Founder Yvonne Poulin

Asha

You wouldn’t know it from this picture, but Asha is blind. Today, after training from The African Touch, she is a skilled massage therapist at a beauty salon.
